Part 7 Use of Quotation Marks and Comma in Dialogues

Add open quotation mark (“), close quotation mark (”) and comma (,) in each dialogue.

1. “I am a lot stronger than you ,” the North Wind said .

A comma is used because the sentence is not finished until the word “said”.

2. “Let’s see who can take off the traveler’s coat first ,” the Sun said

3. The Sun laughed , “Hurray! I win!”

4. The North Wind said , “I should not be too proud .” She learnt a lesson.

“I” refer to the North Wind, so here is the talking sentence.

5. The Sun comforted the North Wind and said , “Don’t be sad . We are good in different ways .”

Part 8 Punctuations

Read the following passage. There is 1 punctuation mistake in each line.

Circle the mistakes or insert “^” for the missing punctuation mark. Write the correct punctuation mark or letter in the box on the right.

One day○a hare had a running race with the tortoise .

The hare said , I run the fastest .” “ You will never
