

Name: _____ () Class: P.4 _____ Date: 10th March, 2020

Both

We have learnt how to use 'both' to talk about two people or two things in previous unit. Do you still remember it?

Two people

1

2

E.g. (1) Both Timmy and Mary are good at English.

Timmy

Mary

1

2

(2) Pete and I are good friends. We both like swimming.

Pete

I

Two things

1

2

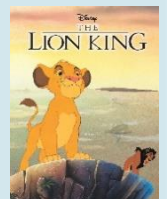

E.g. (1) Both congee and sandwiches are my favourite breakfast.

1

2

(2) Ray loves reading both Peter Pan and The Lion King.

But/ However

We have learnt how to use 'but' to compare two different ideas too.

Idea 1	but	Idea 2 .
---------------	------------	-----------------

Idea 1

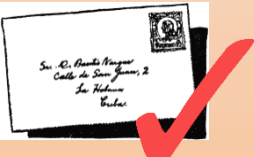

Idea 2

1. I like drinking lemon tea but I don't like eating lemons.

Idea 1

Idea 2

2. Aunt wrote her address on the letter but she didn't write it in her email.

In this unit, we will learn how to use 'however'. It also compares two different ideas or things like 'but'. Take a look at the examples below:

Idea 1 .	However,	Idea 2 .
-----------------	-----------------	-----------------

Idea 1

Idea 2

1. I like drinking lemon tea However, I don't like eating lemons.

Idea 1

Idea 2

2. Aunt wrote her address on the letter However, she didn't write it in her email.