

PASSIVE VOICE (SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE AND SIMPLE PAST TENSE)

Teaching Points

A sentence in the active voice has the doer at the beginning of the sentence. The doer is the subject of the sentence.

A sentence in the passive voice has the things or people receiving the action at the beginning of the sentence.

It is used when the things or people receiving the action are more important than the doers of the action.

Often, the doers of the action are not mentioned as they are less important or not known.

A sentence in the passive voice using the simple present tense expresses a habitual action or timeless truth.

A sentence in the passive voice using the simple past tense expresses an action that happened in the past.
